EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with David Leason (Reg. No. 36,195) on 07 July 2005.

The application has been amended as follows:

In claim 5, line 1, the first term "the" has been change to - - The - - in order to correct an obvious typographical error I the phrase "the strap of claim 4" which should have read as "The strap of claim 4".

In the Specification, line 2 (of the first page) of the first sentence in the first paragraph after the Title, - - Patent No. 6,901,639 B2, - - has been inserted after "2003," in order to identify a patent has been granted on U.S. application No. 10/250,158.

REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Regarding claim 1, the prior art of record fails to teach or suggest a method for securing a tie to a folded shirt having a row of buttons thereon, having the method steps of providing an elongated body having first and second ends, a first portion, a second portion, and a buttonhole through the first portion; wrapping the elongated body around the folded shirt; securing the buttonhole of the first portion of the elongated body to one of the buttons of the row of buttons; disposing the tie on the folded shirt with one part secured proximate to the collar and a second part depending downwardly along the row of buttons; placing the tie over the first portion of the elongated body; attaching the first end to the elongated body at a first position which is displaced from the second end; and attaching the second end to the elongated body at second a position which is displaced from the first end, whereby the second portion overlies the tie and the tie is seated between the first and second portions and secured between the first and second positions.

Regarding claim 3, the prior art of record fails to teach or suggest a strap for use with a shirt and tie combination, the strap having the structural combination including first and second scorelines extending generally perpendicular to a length of the elongated body, and first and second side portions between the first end and the first scoreline and the second end and the second scoreline, respectively, the first and second side portions having a combined length greater than the length of the central portion of the strap between the scorelines; wherein the elongated body is foldable along the first and second scorelines, the first end is attachable to the second side portion and the second end is attachable to the first side portion; a channel, defined by the first and second side portions when the first and second side portions are attached to the second and first ends, respectively, and a buttonhole through the first side portion.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
